AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA
AND
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF YEMEN
CONCERNING THE PROMOTION AND PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS

The Government of the Republic of Indonesia and the Government of the Republic of Yemen (hereinafter referred to as "Contracting Parties");

Bearing in mind the friendly and cooperative relations existing between the two countries and their peoples;

Intending to create favourable conditions for investments by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party on the basis of sovereign equality and mutual benefit; and

Recognizing that the Agreement on the Promotion and Protection of such investments will be conducive to the stimulation of investment activities in both countries;

Have agreed as follows :

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Agreement :

1. The term "investments" shall mean any kind of asset invested by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party, in conformity with the laws and regulations of the latter, including, but not exclusive to :

- a. movable and immovable property as well as other rights such as mortgages, privileges, guarantees and any other similar rights;
 - b. rights derived from shares, bonds or any other form of interest in companies or joint venture in the territory of the other Contracting Party;
 - c. claims to money or to any performance having a financial value;
 - d. intellectual property rights, technical processes, goodwill and know-how;
 - e. business concessions conferred by law or under contract related to investment including concessions to search for or exploit natural resources.
2. The term "investors" shall comprise with regard to either Contracting Party :
- (i) natural persons having the nationality of that Contracting Party,
 - (ii) legal persons constituted under the law of that Contracting Party.
3. The term "without delay" shall be deemed to be fulfilled if a transfer is made within such period as is normally required by international financial practices.
4. "Territory" shall mean :
- a. In respect of the Republic of Indonesia :
The territory of the Republic of Indonesia as defined in its laws.
 - b. In respect of the Republic of Yemen :
The territory of the Republic of Yemen as defined in its laws.

ARTICLE II
PROMOTION AND PROTECTION OF INVESTMENTS

1. Either Contracting Party shall encourage and create favourable conditions for investors of the other Contracting Party to invest in its territory, and shall admit investment capital in accordance with its laws and regulations.
2. Investments of investors of either Contracting Party shall at all times be accorded fair and equitable treatment and shall enjoy adequate protection and security in the territory of the other Contracting Party.
3. Each Contracting Party shall facilitate the exchange of information and experiences with regard to investment legislations, publications, statistics, list of investment opportunities available for promotion in both countries and anything pertaining to the promotion of investment.
4. Each Contracting Party shall make its best efforts to arrange and organize investment visits or business meetings to Yemen as well as to Indonesia, to get acquainted with each other experiences in their field of investment promotion and organization. However, any financial obligations to each party which regard to the implementation of these activities shall be agreed upon in advance of such visits by both Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE III
MOST-FAVOURLED-NATION PROVISIONS

1. Each Contracting Party shall ensure fair and equitable treatment of the investments of investors of the other Contracting Party and shall not impair, by unreasonable or discriminatory measures, the operation, management, maintenance, use, enjoyment or disposal thereof by those investors. Each Contracting Party shall accord to such investment adequate physical security and protection.

2. More particularly, each Contracting Party shall accord to such investments treatment which in any case shall not be less favourable than that accorded to investments of investors of any third state.
3. If a Contracting Party has accorded special advantages to investors of any third state by virtue of agreements establishing customs unions, economic unions, monetary unions or similar institutions, or on the basis of interim agreements leading to such unions or institutions, that Contracting Party shall not be obliged to accord such advantages to investors of the other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE IV EXPROPRIATION

Neither Contracting Party shall take any measures of expropriation, nationalization or any other dispossession, having effect equivalent to nationalization or expropriation against the investments of an investor of the other Contracting Party except under the following conditions :

- (a) the measures are taken for a lawful purpose or public purpose and under process of law;
- (b) the measures are non discriminatory;
- (c) the measures are accompanied by provisions for the payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation. Such compensation shall amount to the fair market value without delay before the measure of dispossession became public knowledge. Such market value shall be determined in accordance with internationally acknowledged practices and methods or, where such fair market value cannot be determined, it shall be such reasonable amount as may be mutually agreed between the Contracting Parties hereto, and it shall be freely transferable in freely usable currencies from the Contracting Party.

ARTICLE V
COMPENSATION FOR LOSSES

This Agreement shall apply to investments by investors of the Republic of Yemen in the territory of the Republic of Indonesia which have been previously granted admission in accordance with Law No. 1 of 1967 concerning Foreign Investment and any law amending or replacing it, and to investments by investors of the Republic of Indonesia in the territory of the Republic of Yemen which have been granted admission in accordance with Investment Law No. 22 of 1991 and any laws amending or replacing it.

ARTICLE XI
APPLICATION OF OTHER PROVISIONS

If the provisions of law of either Contracting Party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties in addition to the present Agreement contain a regulation, whether general or specific, entitling investments by investors of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favourable than is provided for by the present Agreement, such regulation shall to the extent that it is more favourable prevail over the present Agreement.

ARTICLE XII
CONSULTATION AND AMENDMENT

1. Either Contracting Party may request that consultations be held on any matter concerning this Agreement. The other Party shall accord sympathetic consideration to the proposal and shall afford adequate opportunity for such consultations.
2. This Agreement may be amended at any time, if deemed necessary, by mutual consent.

ARTICLE XIII
ENTRY INTO FORCE, DURATION AND TERMINATION

1. The present Agreement shall enter into force thirty days after the date of the last notification by any Contracting Party of the accomplishment of its internal procedures of ratification. It shall remain in force for a period of ten years and shall continue in force thereafter for another period of ten years and so forth unless denounced in writing by either Contracting Party one year before its expiration.
2. In respect of investments made prior to the date of the termination of this Agreement becomes effective, the provisions of Article I to XII shall remain in force for a further period of ten years from the date of termination.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, duly authorized thereto by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.
