Terumi Niihara (Flute / Traditional Japanese Flutes)

After graduating from Musashino Academia Musicae, Terumi Niihara completed his postgraduate studies at the Detmold University of Music in Germany with the highest distinction. Upon returning to Japan, he gave a homecoming recital that received high acclaim.

He has appeared in concerto performances at Izumi Hall in Osaka (currently Sumitomo Life Izumi Hall) with the Royal Chamber Orchestra under the baton of the late Shunsaku Tsutsumi. His performances have been featured on Sapporo Radio Nostalgia, BSC 301, and Shonan Beach FM, and several of his live concerts have been broadcast on various cable television programs.

With the support of the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany in Japan, he has held multiple recital series, all of which were met with enthusiastic praise. Niihara is actively engaged in performing across Japan, serving as a competition jury member, and dedicating himself to the instruction of younger musicians.

He is a registered artist with the Kawagoe City Facility Management Public Corporation (KFP). His achievements include being selected for the Toppan Hall Debut Concert Audition, winning 2nd Prize (no 1st Prize awarded) in the Professional Category of the London International Music Competition (UK), and 1st Prize in the Professional Category of the Medici International Music Competition (UK), among others.
