

RFX | SECURITY POLICY

Document number v1.0

Effective Date: 1st March 2021

IDENTIFICATION

RFX Capital Singapore.

By accessing RFX's websites www.rfxcap.com, (hereinafter referred to as the "views its platform users information security as being of the utmost importance, and therefore invests considerable resources for protecting User's information securely while enabling interaction with the site and utilizing the most advanced and powerful security procedures and encryption systems available.

ACCESS

All individuals using RFX services must be authorised to do so. Individuals must not attempt to access back pages, servers, systems or services for which they are not authorised for.

Any and all suspected breaches of authentication mechanisms should be reported immediately to RFX Support at support@rfxcap.com who will initiate an investigation and take appropriate action, including liaising with that owners and administrators where necessary.

The system is protected by firewall and the firewall will only allow access to system services. RFX monitors, controls and records all communication and activities within the system. Our information security experts conduct regular safety checks.